OTTERBOX iPROTECTION for the

iPhone 4S & 4

FORM

Our engineers and industrial designers carefully considered all aspects of the device to accommodate the ergonomics and natural use of every feature and function. Styling and textures in combination with high quality materials create the most solid protective solution.

FIT

A unique two-layer combination fits precisely to undoubtedly protect. A self adhearing screen protector maintains full touch functionality while guarding against scratches and scuffs; polycarbonate outer layer and a silicone inner layer install easily fitting snugly in place. Port covers protect from dust and debris while allowing access for headphone jack and connectors.

FUNCTION

The OtterBox Commuter Series is synonymous with stylish protection and provides uninhibited use of the device when installed. Highly portable, this case provides superior protection when and where it's needed.

COMMUTER SERIES®
